

All Through the Night

Ar hyd y nos

Lable the sections of this ternary song form.

Translation:

All the stars' eyelids say, all through the night,
 "This is the way to a glorious place"; all through the night.
 Other light besides the stars' is darkness,
 unable to display the real beauty of the heavens.
 The family of heaven keeps silence
 all through the night.